Proving that you don't have to live in a tent to reduce the size of your home's carbon footprint, Hamptons Luxury Homes has created a coalition of East End businesses dedicated to helping affluent consumers make their home more eco-friendly: the Hamptons Green Alliance.

Already joining the roundtable:

- Connected Hearth: Internet savvy means of surveillance of your homes energy systems.
- Delfino Insulation Company: supplier/installer of energy-conserving insulations.
- Flanders Heating & Air Conditioning: designer/engineer of energy-efficient comfort systems.
- Sun Stream USA: state-of-the-art solar electric, solar pool heating, wind powered and geothermal systems.
- Tewise: leader in 100% organic ecological landscape management programs.

The primary purpose of the Alliance is to provide the resources for practice the exchange of information and ideas concerning materials, systems, best practices to build zero energy and carbon neutral footprint homes.

Expect a launch of its two websites, www.energyfreeliving.com and www.hamptongreenliving.com, in the coming months.

Want to learn more? Network with them and others at the Green Drinks of the Hamptons next week.
